PAYMENT DETAILS
(All questions regarding financial matters are to be directed to the Prospective Student Coordinator.)

Fees: The tuition fee for domestic students for a standard subject in the Bachelor of Arts in the Liberal Arts is $1,995.

Campion College Australia has been approved to offer the Commonwealth Government FEE-HELP scheme. FEE-HELP is a contingent loan which becomes repayable when a graduate earns a specified income level. Please consult the current FEE-HELP Information booklet or access the information on the StudyAssist website http://studyassist.gov.au for more information.

Students paying upfront will be sent an invoice based upon their approved subject enrolment. If you choose to defer all or part of your tuition fee through a FEE-HELP loan, you will be required to complete a Request for FEE-HELP Assistance Form for the FEE-HELP amount, during Orientation Week.

Refunds: Students should be aware that fees are not refunded, nor are loan debts remitted upon withdrawal from subjects after the Census date for the specific subject. The College’s refund policy appears on the Campion College website www.campion.edu.au and in the current Student Handbook.
