How to connect to a library printer over a wireless connection.

Windows 7/Vista users.

1. Make sure you have network access and enter your credentials as required.

2. Click on the start button.

3. In the run dialog box type `\s1web3` & press enter.

4. When asked for your credentials enter them as shown in the example diagram, Student\your username & enter your password as required & press ok.

5. You will be presented available printers to connect to in the Library. S1L1p1 & S1L1p1b are both the printers in Lab1. S1L2p1 & S1L2p1b are the printers in Lab2.

6. Simply double click the desired printer you wish to add to your PC and a popup screen showing.

7. & then you will be asked to install the drivers, click on install drivers.
8. The drivers will be copied across to your laptop as shown below.

9. The printer will now be added to your PC and you will be able to select that printer and print to it.

XP Users

1. Click the start button in bottom left corner and click on run.

2. Enter in `\s1web3` into the required & click ok as shown below.

3. You may be asked for credentials if so enter student1\your username and enter your password as required and click ok.

4. You will be presented with the available printers. s1L1p1 & s1L1p1b are the printers in Lab1. s1L2p1 & s1L2p1b are the printers in Lab 2.

4. Double click the printer you would like to add to your PC and it will start to install the drivers automatically. Once added you can select this printer and commence printing to it.