

Choosing & Using ONLINE RESOURCES

Choosing & Using ONLINE RESOURCES

Database Access

Access the databases via the database link on the library catalogue. If you are off campus, log on to your student portal to access the databases via the library link.

Username and passwords are required to access the databases from off campus. Please see the Librarian if you are unsure of these credentials.

DATABASES

JSTOR

JSTOR covers a number of subject areas and is particularly useful for the humanities. It provides a large number of academic journals and articles in full-text which may be downloaded or viewed online.

USING JSTOR

Type a search word or phrase into the search box. Narrow or extend results with date range or subject. Download articles as PDFs, read online, or view citation details.

OXFORD REFERENCE

Oxford Reference is an up-to-date, authoritative reference resource with information on subject specific topics. It contains overview pages, subject references, English and bilingual dictionaries, timelines and quotations.

USING OXFORD REFERENCE

Type a search word or phrase into the search bar, refine search by reference type, subject or content. Results can be printed, saved and emailed.

OXFORD SCHOLARSHIP ONLINE

This academic monograph database provides high quality books, chapters and abstracts available through streamlined search functions. With material that is frequently updated and expanded on, this is an excellent research tool for students. Campion subscribes to 3 subject areas: History, Literature and Religion.

USING OXFORD SCHOLARSHIP

Type a search word or phrase into the search box, you can then search within your results and filter results by selecting different university presses, date ranges and subjects.

Oxford Scholarship searches first for books that contain your key words. You can also search for chapters within books, a process which opens up a wider range of results. To do this, look under “Search Results” and toggle option from ‘books’ to ‘chapters.’

GALE DATABASES

Gale offers a range of resources across subject areas and includes a wide variety of user friendly content.

USING GALE DATABASES

For a majority of the Gale databases, type your search word or phrase into the search box. Search within results or limit results by content type, subject, publication date, publication title, subject or discipline. Use the Topic Finder to explore related subjects. View results as PDF or HTML, or listen to the article via the audio option.

GALE ACADEMIC ONEFILE

Academic OneFile is an excellent source of peer-reviewed content across academic disciplines.

WORLD HISTORY IN CONTEXT

World History in Context provides contextual information on events, topics, people and places in world history. Sources include academic journals, news articles, magazines, primary source documents, images, audio files and videos.

RELIGION & PHILOSOPHY COLLECTION

The Religion and Philosophy Collection provides access to many journals and magazines that cover aspects of religion, philosophy and anthropology.

GALE VIRTUAL REFERENCE LIBRARY

The Gale Virtual Reference Library provides a database of reference sources including encyclopaedias on topics across subject areas.

GALE LITFINDER

LitFinder provides access to many primary literary works as well as secondary resources such as biographies and topic overviews.

GALE SHAKESPEARE COLLECTION

The Shakespeare Collection contains extensive materials supporting literary, historical and performance studies focusing on Shakespeare. It includes facsimile copies of the First Folio, the Gordon Crosse Theatrical Diaries, criticism, reference works and reviews.

EDUCATOR'S REFERENCE COMPLETE

Educator's Reference Complete provides access to content in subject areas including education administration, funding, technology, health education, child development and psychology and bilingual education.

HEALTH REFERENCE CENTRE ACADEMIC

Health Reference Centre Academic contains medical and professional articles, health magazines, reference works and pamphlets covering subjects for nursing, allied health and health researchers. The material is intended for informational purposes.

PSYCHOLOGY COLLECTION

The Psychology Collection contains academic journals and magazines that cover the study of psychology including emotions, mind and personality.

FINE ARTS AND MUSIC COLLECTION

Fine Arts and Music Collection provides access to information across subject areas including music, film, drama and art history.

ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES & POLICY COLLECTION

Environmental Studies and Policy Collection provides access to sources that deal with environmental studies, issues and policies. Diverse perspectives are included from a variety of sources including government, the scientific community and corporate interests.

LEGALTRAC

LegalTrac contains coverage of American law, British Commonwealth Law, European Union and international law with federal and state cases. Material is indexed with some selected full-text for law reviews, legal newspapers, specialty law and bar association journals.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE COLLECTION

Criminal Justice Collection provides access to content covering law enforcement, compliance, security and terrorism from academic articles and magazines.

COMMUNICATIONS & MASS MEDIA COLLECTION

Communications and Mass Media Collection contains content across subjects in the field of communication including linguistics, writing, advertising and public relations.

COMPUTER DATABASE

Computer Database provides access to technical publications in the electronics, telecommunications and computer industries covering topics such as engineering, communications, electronics, hardware and software.

Individual Journals

BRITISH CATHOLIC HISTORY JOURNAL

Formerly titled Recusant History, this journal is published on behalf of the Catholic Record Society and is a platform for scholarship on British Catholic history and development from the 15th century to present times.

TELOS PRESS JOURNAL

This quarterly journal covers contemporary matters in politics, philosophy, critical theory and culture. It provides theoretical analysis of significant issues in the present age.

Free Resources

- New Catholic Encyclopaedia
- Perseus Digital Library
- Sharing the Word: Educational Resources for Catholic Ministry

